Library
Open to researchers and specialists
Monday to Friday 10:30-13:30 and 15:30-18:30
Temporary exhibitions
Online catalogue
biblioteca@rcsmm.eu

Museum
Visits on Wednesday mornings
Previous appointment
museo@rcsmm.eu

Directory
Basement:
  Practice Rooms 1-7
Lower level:
  Security, Information, Concierge
  Manuel de Falla Auditorium
  Cafeteria
  Classrooms 1-2-3
1st Floor:
  Auditorium José Cubiles
  Instrument Museum
  Student Association
  Classrooms 4-16, 1-6 Seminars
2nd floor:
  Library-Sound Library
  Board Room, Staff Room
  Management, Administration
  Head of Studies, Erasmus Office
  Classrooms 17-18-19, seminar 7-12
  Cabins 9-24
3rd Floor:
  Tomas Luis de Victoria Auditorium
  Electroacoustic Laboratory
  Classrooms 20-41

Contact
C/ Doctor Mata 2 · 28012 Madrid
Tel +34 915.392.901 | Fax +349.152.758
info@rcsmm.eu

Networking
Real Conservatorio Superior de Música de Madrid (Oficial)
@RCSMMM_oficial
Youtube Channel = RCSMM

www.rcsmm.eu
The Royal Conservatory of Madrid:

- Is an official center belonging to the City of Madrid
- It was founded in 1830 by Queen Maria Cristina
- It is the oldest conservatory in Spain
- It has formed many famous musicians
- It has a valuable heritage: Archive, Library and Museum

Since 1990, the Royal Conservatory is situated in the calle Santa Isabel 53, Madrid:

- The building was designed in the XVIII century by the royal architect Francesco Sabatini (1722-1797)
- It was part of the Main Hospital of Madrid
- It has been annexed to the San Carlos Clinical Hospital of the Faculty of Medicine
- The Rehabilitation was designed in 1990 by Manuel de las Casas, Ignacio de las Casas and Jaime Lorenzo
- It is located in the Museum Quarter near an important communications hub
- During the years 1850-1925 and 1966-1990 the conservatoire was situated within the Royal Theatre

Academic offer of RCSMM

The Madrid Royal Conservatory has a wide academic offer with different specialties: piano, organ, guitar, accordion, harp, clarinet, flute, recorder, baroque transverse flute, bassoon, oboe, saxophone, percussion, horn, trumpet, trombone, tuba, violin, viola, cello, double bass, baroque violin, baroque cello, viola da gamba, Renaissance and Baroque keyboard instruments, composition, conducting, pedagogy and musicology.

The studies are framed within the European Higher Education and lead to higher degrees of Level 2 MECES (QF-EHEA: LEVEL 2) identical in rank, status and rights as any Bachelor or Engineering degree.

Artistic and cultural activities

The Royal Conservatory has several auditoriums where concerts, auditions and public lectures are offered. It also organizes regular concerts at institutions such as the National Auditorium, the Reina Sofia Museum, the Real Academia de Bellas Artes de San Fernando or Residencia de Estudiantes.

See our WEB: www.rcsmm.eu

We have several orchestras and chamber groups:

- Symphonic Orchestra
- Symphonic Band
- Classical orchestra
- String Orchestra
- Baroque orchestra
- Contemporary Music Group
- Saxophones Group
- Choir Trombones
- Big Band

It offers highly specialized and personalized teaching and brings together around 600 students and 140 teachers.

To study in the conservatory applicants have to pass the basic secondary school education and then pass the entry exam held every year during the month of June (enrollment in April).
The Royal Conservatory of Madrid:

- Is an official center belonging to the City of Madrid
- It was founded in 1830 by Queen Maria Cristina
- It is the oldest conservatory in Spain
- It has formed many famous musicians
- It has a valuable heritage: Archive, Library and Museum

Since 1990, the Royal Conservatory is situated in the calle Santa Isabel 53, Madrid:

- The building was designed in the XVIII century by the royal architect Francesco Sabatini (1722-1797)
- It was part of the Main Hospital of Madrid
- It has been annexed to the San Carlos Clinical Hospital of the Faculty of Medicine
- The Rehabilitation was designed in 1990 by Manuel de las Casas, Ignacio de las Casas and Jaime Lorenzo
- It is located in the Museum Quarter near an important communications hub
- During the years 1850-1925 and 1966-1990 the conservatoire was situated within the Royal Theatre

Academic offer of RCSMM

The Madrid Royal Conservatory has a wide academic offer with different specialties: piano, organ, guitar, accordion, harp, clarinet, flute, recorder, baroque transverse flute, bassoon, oboe, saxophone, percussion, horn, trumpet, trombone, tuba, violin, viola, cello, double bass, baroque violin, baroque cello, viola da gamba, Renaissance and Baroque keyboard instruments, composition, conducting, pedagogy and musicology.

The studies are framed within the European Higher Education and lead to higher degrees of Level 2 MECES (QF-EHEA: LEVEL 2) identical in rank, status and rights as any Bachelor or Engineering degree.

Artistic and cultural activities

The Royal Conservatory has several auditoriums where concerts, auditions and public lectures are offered. It also organizes regular concerts at institutions such as the National Auditorium, the Reina Sofia Museum, the Real Academia de Bellas Artes de San Fernando or Residencia de Estudiantes.

See our WEB: www.rcsmm.eu

We have several orchestras and chamber groups:

- Symphonic Orchestra
- Symphonic Band
- Classical orchestra
- String Orchestra
- Baroque orchestra
- Contemporary Music Group
- Saxophones Group
- Choir Trombones
- Big Band

It offers highly specialized and personalized teaching and brings together around 600 students and 140 teachers.

To study in the conservatory applicants have to pass the basic secondary school education and then pass the entry exam held every year during the month of June (enrollment in April).
The Royal Conservatory of Madrid:

- Is an official center belonging to the City of Madrid
- It was founded in 1830 by Queen Maria Cristina
- It is the oldest conservatory in Spain
- It has formed many famous musicians
- It has a valuable heritage: Archive, Library and Museum

Since 1990, the Royal Conservatory is situated in the calle Santa Isabel 53, Madrid:

- The building was designed in the XVIII century by the royal architect Francesco Sabatini (1722-1797)
- It was part of the Main Hospital of Madrid
- It has been annexed to the San Carlos Clinical Hospital of the Faculty of Medicine
- The Rehabilitation was designed in 1990 by Manuel de las Casas, Ignacio de las Casas and Jaime Lorenzo
- It is located in the Museum Quarter near an important communications hub
- During the years 1850-1925 and 1966-1990 the conservatoire was situated within the Royal Theatre

Academic offer of RCSMM

The Madrid Royal Conservatory has a wide academic offer with different specialties: piano, organ, guitar, accordion, harp, clarinet, flute, recorder, baroque transverse flute, bassoon, oboe, saxophone, percussion, horn, trumpet, trombone, tuba, violin, viola, cello, double bass, baroque violin, baroque cello, viola da gamba, Renaissance and Baroque keyboard instruments, composition, conducting, pedagogy and musicology.

The studies are framed within the European Higher Education and lead to higher degrees of Level 2 MECES (QF-EHEA: LEVEL 2) identical in rank, status and rights as any Bachelor or Engineering degree.

It offers highly specialized and personalized teaching and brings together around 600 students and 140 teachers.

To study in the conservatory applicants have to pass the basic secondary school education and then pass the entry exam held every year during the month of June (enrollment in April).

Artistic and cultural activities

The Royal Conservatory has several auditoriums where concerts, auditions and public lectures are offered. It also organizes regular concerts at institutions such as the National Auditorium, the Reina Sofia Museum, the Real Academia de Bellas Artes de San Fernando or Residencia de Estudiantes.

See our WEB: www.rcsmm.eu

We have several orchestras and chamber groups:

- Symphonic Orchestra
- Symphonic Band
- Classical orchestra
- String Orchestra
- Baroque orchestra
- Contemporary Music Group
- Saxophones Group
- Choir Trombones
- Big Band
Library
Open to researchers and specialists
Monday to Friday 10:30-13:30 and 15:30-18:30
Temporary exhibitions
Online catalogue
biblioteca@rcsmm.eu

Museum
Visits on Wednesday mornings
Previous appointment
museo@rcsmm.eu

Directory
Basement:
  Practice Rooms 1-7
Lower level:
  Security, Information, Concierge
  Manuel de Falla Auditorium
  Cafeteria
  Classrooms 1-2-3
1st Floor:
  Auditorium José Cubiles
  Instrument Museum
  Student Association
  Classrooms 4-16, 1-6 Seminars
2nd floor:
  Library-Sound Library
  Board Room, Staff Room
  Management, Administration
  Head of Studies, Erasmus Office
  Classrooms 17-18-19, seminar 7-12
  Cabins 9-24
3rd Floor:
  Tomas Luis de Victoria Auditorium
  Electroacoustic Laboratory
  Classrooms 20-41

Contact
C/ Doctor Mata 2 · 28012 Madrid
Tel +34 915.392.901 | Fax +349.152.758
info@rcsmm.eu

Networking
Real Conservatorio Superior de Música de Madrid (Oficial)
@RCSMMM_oficial
Youtube Channel = RCSMM

www.rcsmm.eu
Library
Open to researchers and specialists
Monday to Friday 10:30-13:30 and 15:30-18:30
Temporary exhibitions
Online catalogue
biblioteca@rcsmm.eu

Museum
Visits on Wednesday mornings
Previous appointment
museo@rcsmm.eu

Directory
Basement:
   Practice Rooms 1-7
Lower level:
   Security, Information, Concierge
   Manuel de Falla Auditorium
   Cafeteria
   Classrooms 1-2-3
1st Floor:
   Auditorium José Cubiles
   Instrument Museum
   Student Association
   Classrooms 4-16, 1-6 Seminars
2nd floor:
   Library-Sound Library
   Board Room, Staff Room
   Management, Administration
   Head of Studies, Erasmus Office
   Classrooms 17-18-19, seminar 7-12
   Cabins 9-24
3rd Floor:
   Tomas Luis de Victoria Auditorium
   Electroacoustic Laboratory
   Classrooms 20-41

Contact
C/ Doctor Mata 2 · 28012 Madrid
Tel +34 915.392.901 | Fax +349.152.758
info@rcsmm.eu

Networking
Real Conservatorio Superior de Música de Madrid (Oficial)
@RCSMMM_oficial
Youtube Channel = RCSMM

www.rcsmm.eu